From their first encounter as young lovers, Florentino and Fermina are drawn to each other with an irresistible force. However, their love is forbidden by Fermina's wealthy and influential parents, who force her to marry the respected and wealthy Dr. Juvenal Urbino. Florentino is heartbroken, but he vows to wait for Fermina, no matter how long it takes.

Over the years, Florentino's love for Fermina never wavers. He writes her passionate love letters, secretly serenades her, and waits patiently for an opportunity to be with her again. Fermina, on the other hand, struggles to reconcile her love for Florentino with her duty to her husband and society. She represses her feelings for Florentino, but she never forgets him.

As the years pass, Florentino and Fermina's lives take different paths. Florentino becomes a successful businessman, while Fermina becomes a respected member of society. However, their love for each other remains strong. When Dr. Urbino dies, Florentino finally has his chance to be with Fermina.
