Brien is particularly interested in Madonna's role as a cultural icon. She argues that Madonna has been a major force in shaping the way we think about gender, sexuality, and identity. Madonna's music, videos, and performances have all challenged conventional norms and pushed the boundaries of what is considered acceptable.

Of course, Madonna's career has not been without controversy. Brien does not shy away from discussing the many scandals that have plagued Madonna's life, including her controversial music videos, her relationships with younger men, and her outspoken views on religion and politics.

Despite the controversies, Madonna remains one of the most popular and influential entertainers in the world.
