About My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein

My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein was founded in 1906 as the Hebrew Home for the Aged. The home was originally located on the Lower East Side of Manhattan, and it served as a home for elderly Jewish immigrants. In 1967, the home moved to its current location in the Bronx. In 1998, the home was renamed My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein in honor of a generous donor. Andrew Goldstein was one of the first residents of the home and he volunteered time to help other residents. Goldstein was a passionate advocate for people with disabilities and he worked to ensure that they had access to quality care.

My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein is a non-profit organization and it relies on donations to provide care to its residents. The home has a variety of fundraising events throughout the year and it also accepts donations online.

Services Offered by My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein

My Jewish Home Andrew Goldstein offers a variety of services, including skilled nursing care, rehabilitation, and respite care. The home also has a variety of programs and activities to help residents stay active and engaged.

* Skilled nursing care is provided by a team of registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and certified nursing assistants. Skilled nursing care is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. * Rehabilitation services are provided by a team of physical therapists, occupational therapists, and speech therapists. Rehabilitation services are available to help residents regain their strength, mobility, and independence. * Respite care is provided for people who need a short-term stay in a nursing home. Respite care can provide a break for caregivers and it can also give residents a chance to socialize and participate in activities.
