For the Beauty of the Earth from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk
By: Folliott S. Pierpoint (1835-1917)
From: Shipley's Lyra Eucharistica, 1864
Tune: Charterhouse
Comp: Alexander S. Cooper (1835-1900)

1) For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Gracious God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

2) For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flower,
Sun and moon and stars of light,
Gracious God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

3) For the joy of ear and eye,
For the heart and mind's delight,
For the mystic harmony
Linking sense to sound and sight,
Gracious God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

4) For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above,
For all gentle thoughts and mild,
Gracious God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.

5) For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely given,
Graces human and divine,
Flowers of earth and buds of heaven,
Gracious God, to Thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise. Amen.

There are a number of factors that have contributed to the decline of Pax Americana. One is the rise of China. China's economy has grown rapidly in recent decades, and it is now the world's second-largest economy. China is also investing heavily in its military, and it is now a major power in the Asia-Pacific region.

Another factor that has contributed to the decline of Pax Americana is the rise of populism and nationalism around the world. This has led to a decrease in support for globalization and free trade, which have been the cornerstones of Pax Americana.

The United States is also facing a number of challenges at home. The country is deeply divided politically, and there is a growing sense of economic inequality. These challenges are making it difficult for the United States to maintain its global leadership role.

The decline of Pax Americana is a major development with implications for the entire world. It is unclear what will replace Pax Americana, but it is likely that the world will become more multipolar and less stable.
